Though Their Song is Over Their Melody Will Carry On
Life is like a song,
so soft and sweet
With its melody playing along,
Right in tune with our very thoughts
Our soul, ourself,
being this song.
Then the song stops,
so suddenly
Without warning we're engulfed
in sorrow,
But through the haze
and misunderstanding
We must remember for tomorrow
That even though their song is over,
Their melody
Will carry on ...

The 1979 Running Indians ended the season a respectable .500, with a 3-3 dual meet record, an eighth place Saginaw Valley Conference finish, and a fourth place City Meet finish. After defeating Saginaw Arthur Hill and Midland and slipping to Kearsley and Northern, they rose to their finest level by defeating Southwestern for the first time in six years. This meet cave down to the last event. They concluded with a tough loss to Northwestern.

There were several bright spots on the team, particularly MVP Mike Edson, MIP Jerry Nard, and high point man Leland Scott. Coach Mike Vance can look forward to the future. The sophomores captured third place in the Clio Sophomore Relays and second in the Holly Sophomore Relays. These featured fine individual performances by Garrett Fox and Byron Roberts. The Tribe also placed five men in the state meet.

Varsity Football

The 1979 Varsity football team had one of its most successful seasons in recent history, winning a share of the Saginaw Valley Championship and taking the city title outright. The season started slowly with losses in two of the first three games, but the Indians caught fire and won their last five games. The biggest victories were over city rivals Southwestern and Northern. The four overtime win over Northern was the longest and certainly one of the most exciting games in that great rivalry.

The Most Valuable Player award was won by Eric Turner, while Darrell McGaughy was selected Most Improved Player. Other award winners were: Best Offensive Players John Selly and Eric Franklin, Best Defensive Players Alton Hicks and David Hairston, Most Valuable Junior Troy Sanders, Spirit Nick Manych, and Heart Mike Griffin. In addition John Selly was voted All State.

Eddie wins face off ... again.

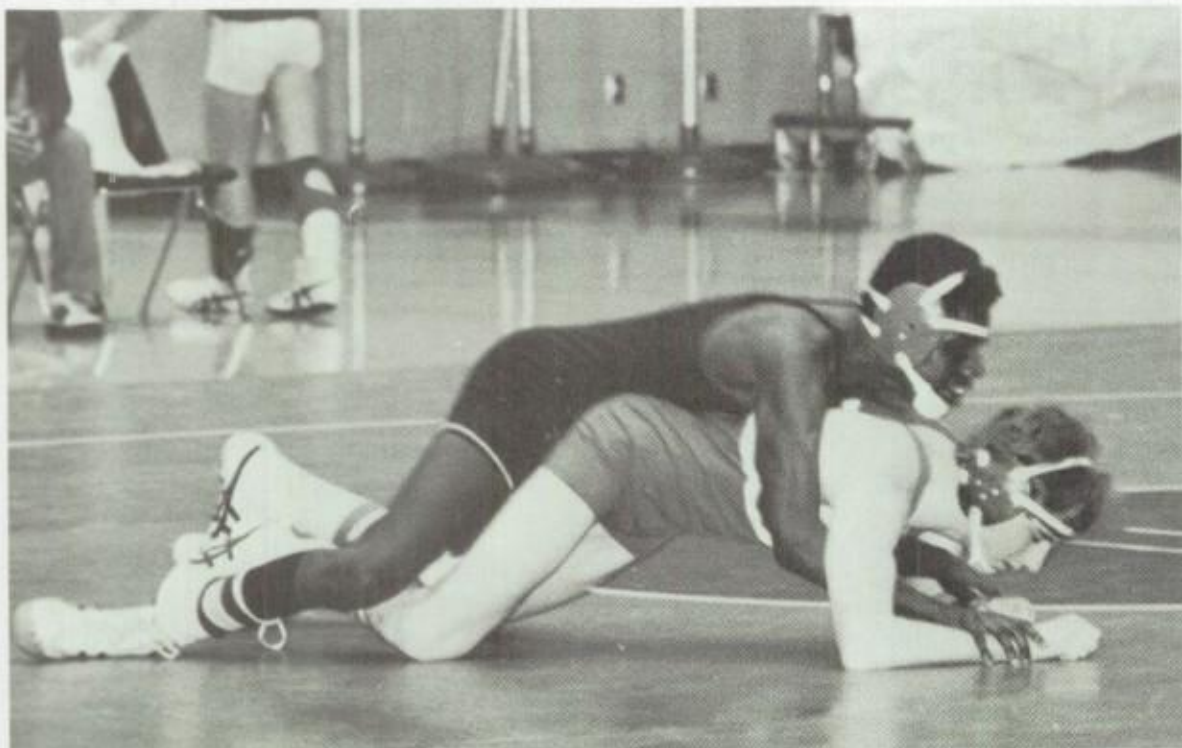

The skating indians had another outstanding year, winning 18 games, losing 3, and tying 2. They started the season off by winning the Christmas tournament, and followed up by winning the City Championship and the Saginaw Valley Conference Championship with only one tie to marr a perfect valley record.

Central High School dominated the all-city squad with 5 skaters on the first team. Marty Kontyko, Ed Lyon, Jeff Peters, Dan Messler, and Scott Hooper were outstanding for the skating indians this year as first team all-stars. In addition, Scott Hooper was a unanimous choice as the most valuable player in the city division. Central had a total of 11 players receiving mention in all city balloting this year.

With 14 lettermen returning next year, the skating indians look forward to the 1980-1981 season. For all of the people who supported Central during the hockey season, thank you from the coaching staff for making this one of the best seasons Central has ever had.

And The Council

Flint Central's Student Council got off to a late start this year because of the teachers strike, but so far everything has gone well. The first project was to get the sophomore class elections off the ground, and it was successfully done. Immediately following that was Spirit Week and thanks to a lot of hard work by Connie Mark it ran smoothly. The council is planning student exchange programs, dress-up days, activity days and some community activities, such as shoveling snow for the elderly. We are looking forward to a good year.

Where Have All The Skiers Gone?

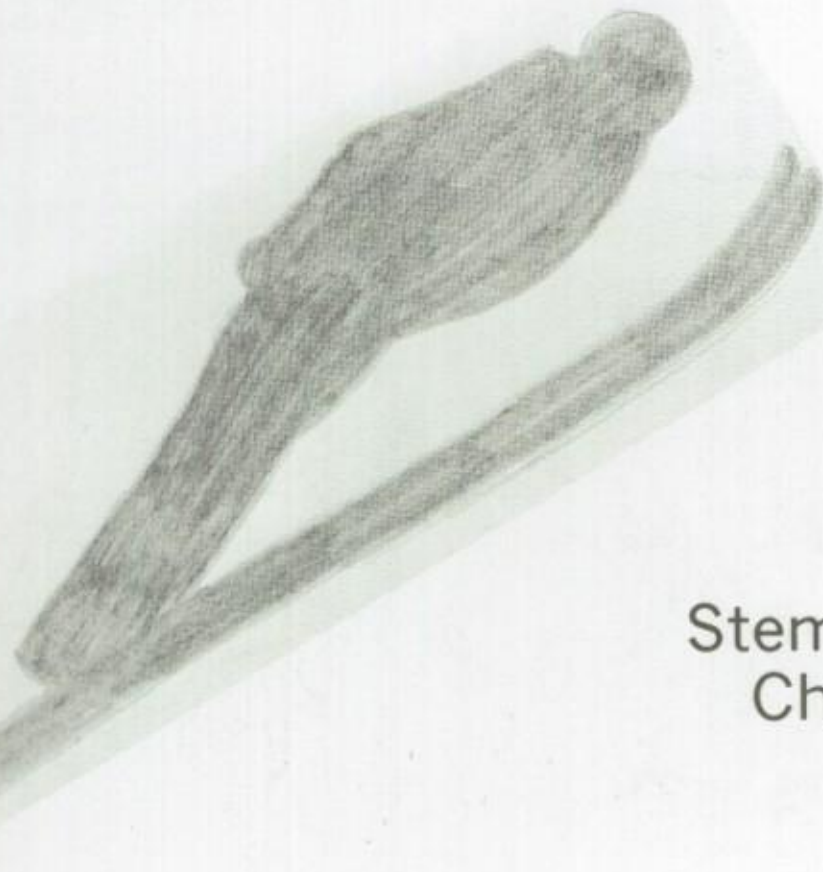

The ski club got off to a slow start this year because of lack of snow, but that did not stop the skiing Indians. Under the leadership of Charles Collins, the ski club planned several trips to the North, which were made possible because of the dedication of Mr. Krieger, the ski club coordinator. In the end, it proved to be a good year with special thanks going out to those people who supported the ski club by buying items at its bake sale.

Spirit Week

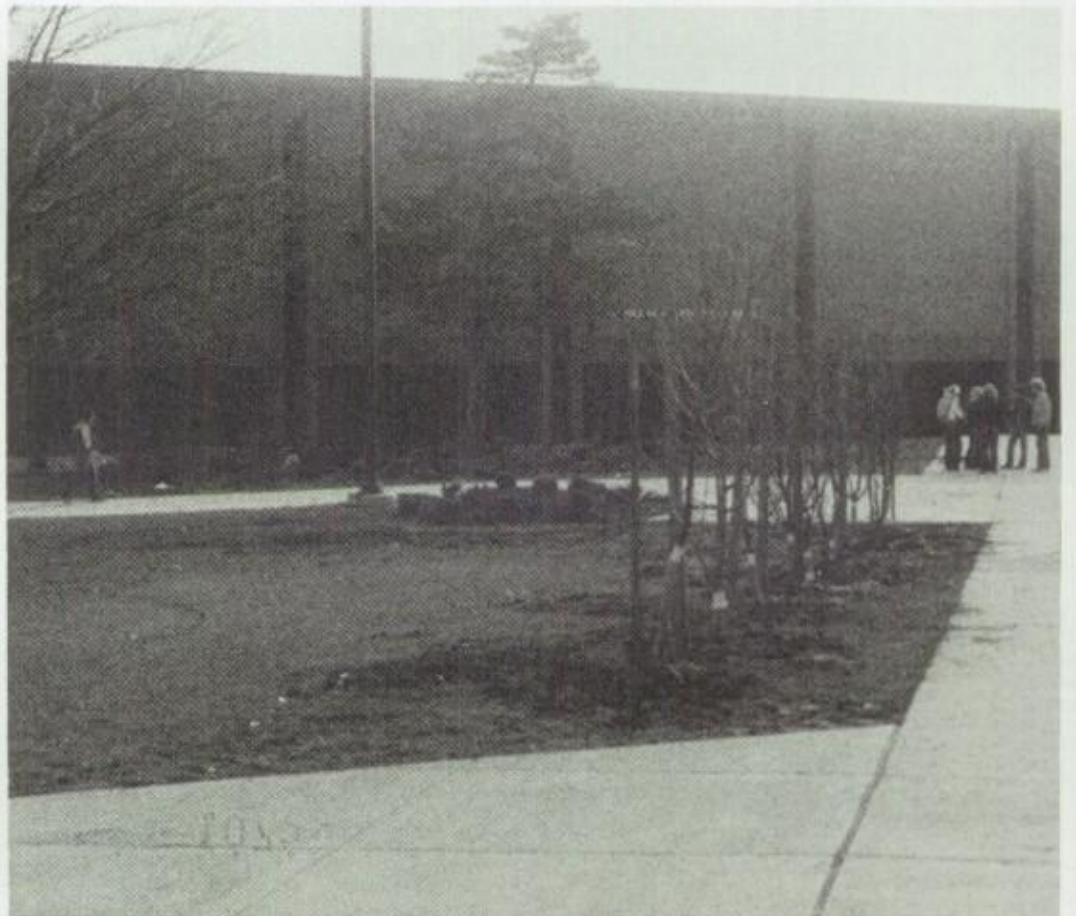

SPIRIT WEEK

Spirit Week is an annual activity held the week before the Central vs Northern varsity football game. Each class competes in different activities after school each night. Some events are: Relay race, life saver pass, obstacle course, dance contest, orange neck pass, teachers spelling bee, and there are many more. The purpose of spirit week is to promote spirit among all the people at Central for the up coming game.

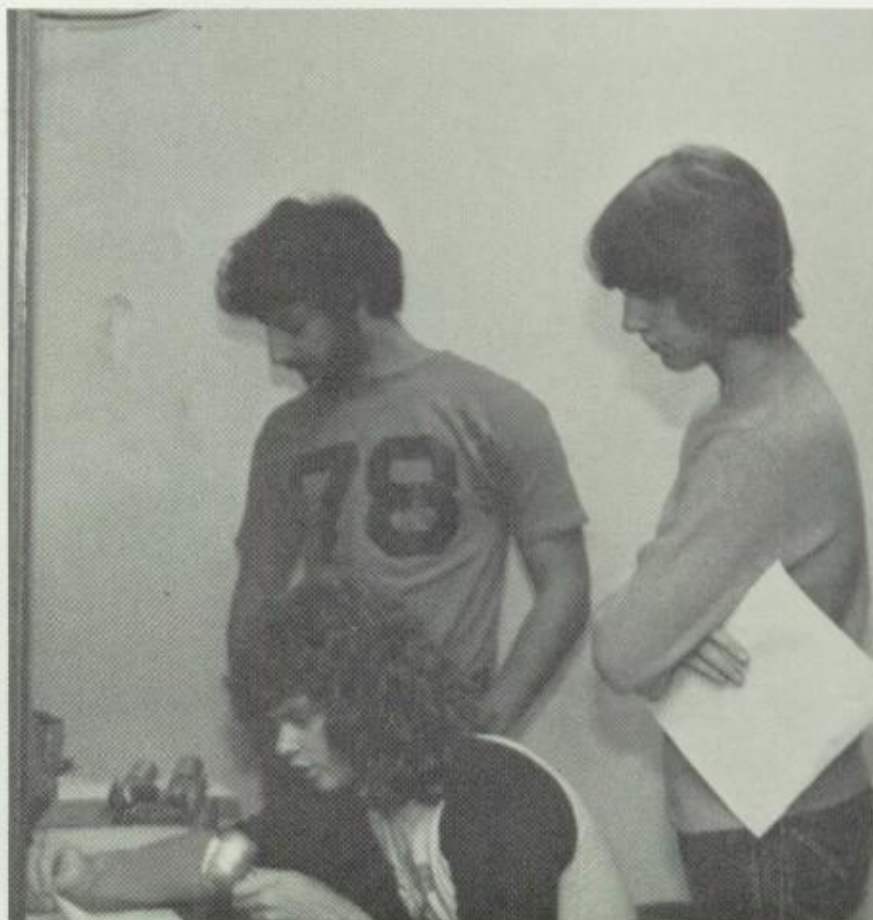

LANDSCAPING

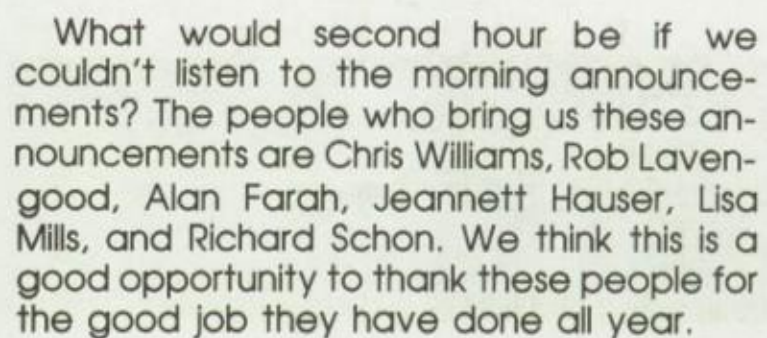

Mr. MacDaniels and his science classes worked very hard this year landscaping the plaza area near the Field House. They used several types of shrubs and trees. It looks really nice now. It takes a lot of planning and instruction to round up a bunch of kids and have them do a job like this. Thanks to all the people who worked on the project, the hard work is appreciated.

English Classes Get Down To Basics

Some of the loveliest ladies in this city go to Central.

Two Students pose for Pablo Picasso.

With an emphasis on writing and literature, the English Department offers classes that recognize the student's abilities and hopefully stimulate him to progress. For advanced English students, Creative Writing, Perspectives in American Literature, and Shakespeare are offered. Students of average ability, who enjoy a challenge, can take Advanced Composition or Techniques of Writing. Those students who have a greater need for assistance many elect English Lab or Practical Writing. Also, there are other courses available that focus on more specific aspects of English.

Mrs. Shirley Parola left Central on sabbatical this year and was replaced by Mr. Frank Walker.

The journalism classes are taught by Miss Mary Lou Abbott. She has a Journalism I class and heads the Prospectus Yearbook Staff which is also a class this year. Next year it is planned that there will be a class for both the newspaper and the yearbook, in addition to the regular journalism classes.

Math Is Important Factor At Central

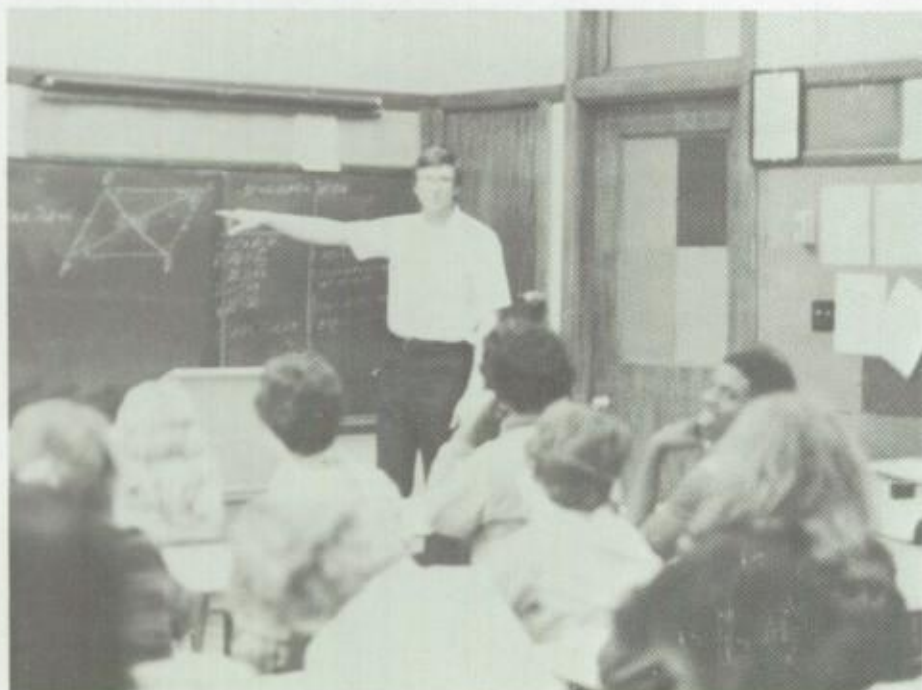

The Mathematics Department at Central went through several significant changes during the 79-80 season. First, Mr. Haffner, formerly a teacher at Lowell, joined the ranks of red-and-black. Second, due to the new math requirements, Competency Math was instated as a new course. It is directed at students in the eleventh grade who failed the Competency test in their sophomore year. Third, Algebra I replaced Intermediate Algebra I. Intermediate Algebra I is no longer being taught in Flint Public high schools.

Now this is the way it's done.

Time for Math!

A diagram is worth a thousand words!

Central Students Take Stock In Business Classes

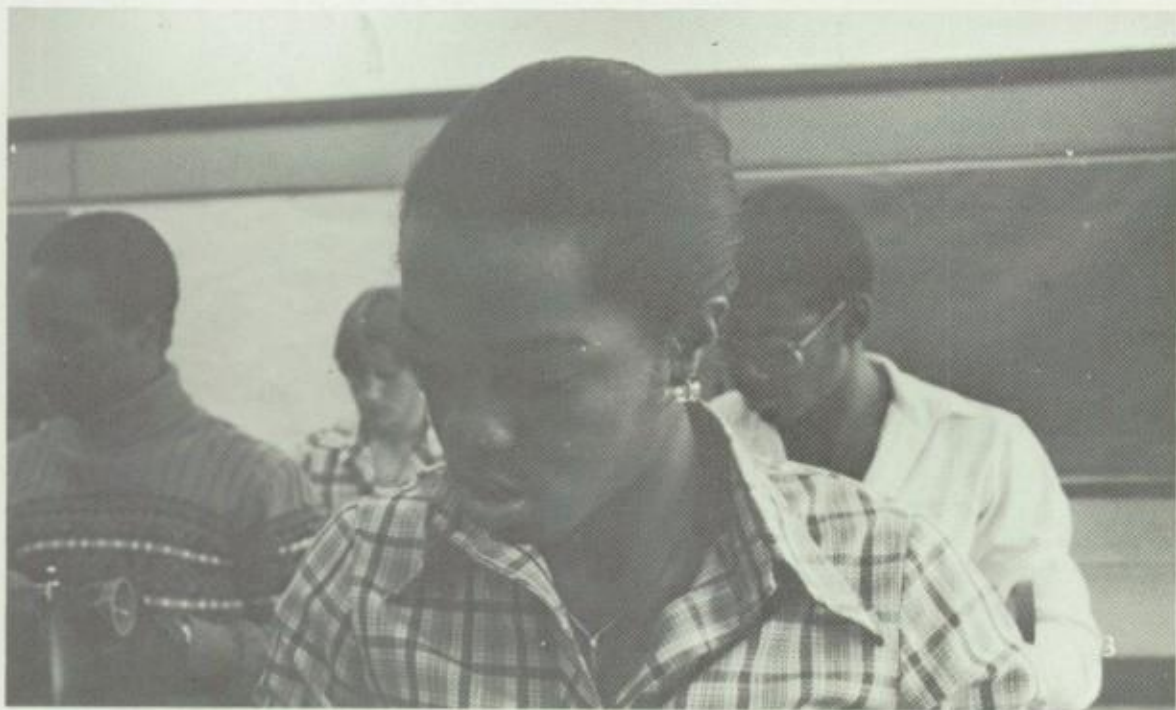

The purpose of the Business classes is to educate students to be intelligent consumers of the goods and services that the business world has to offer. They help develop those personal qualities and social skills that are necessary to work successfully with others as a productive social unit. The Business Department began the new year with a staff addition and a staff change — Mrs. Collins, in addition to her business classes, taught in the English Department this year. Mr. Jerry Lane is now the instructor of Typing I and Business Math.

In the same department in the Humanities Specialty section, courses were offered in Advance Psychology and Humanities, which is a two hour block of English and Social Studies. Field trips took students to the Great Lakes Invitational Model United Nations and a Law Day. Mrs. Calvo left the department this year and was replaced by George Nassif.

Industrial Arts Builds Constructive Students

The Industrial Arts Department concentrates its efforts towards designing classes which allow students to gain an understanding of industry and industrial practices. A wide variety of classes are offered, ranging from basic information to preparatory job skills. Classes last for one semester, however, students may opt to study for several semesters in a particular subject area. This enables students to expand their creative talent and develop worthy, leisure time activities.

A Fresh Start For NJROTC

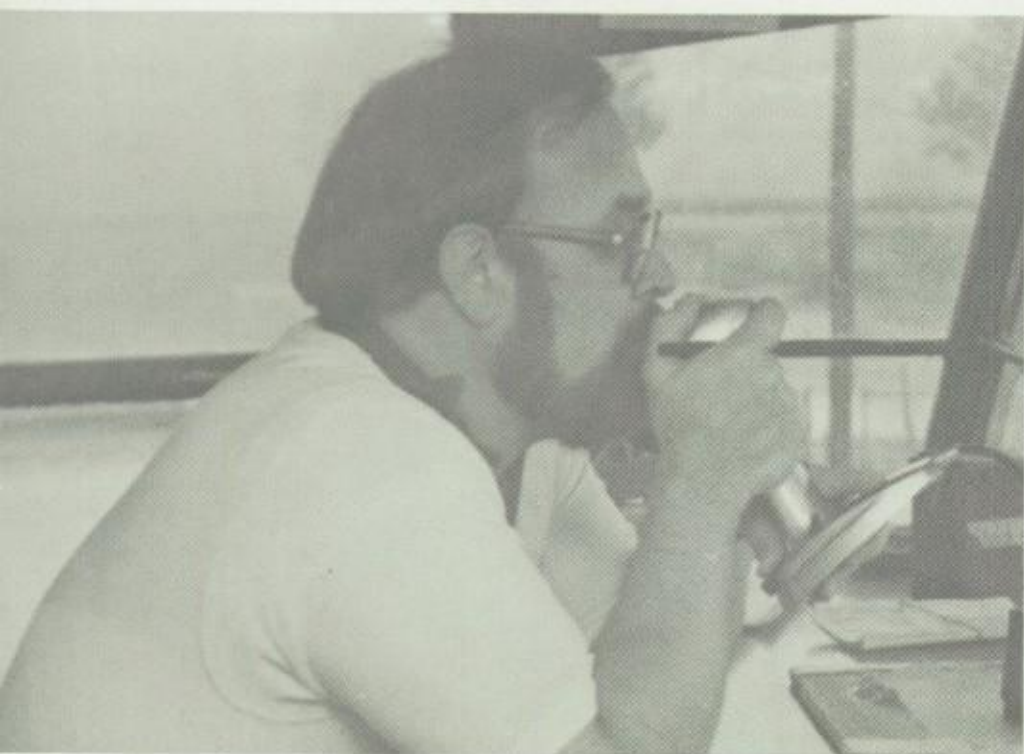

The Naval Science Department of the ROTC was reinstated at Central after several years of absence. The course will be offered each year, but it is designed to be taken over a four year period. Under the leadership of Chief Guenther and Commander Gerzevitz, the course provides an opportunity for high school students to recognize the elements and necessities of national security. In addition, the strengthening of character traits, and self-discipline, and the understanding of naval careers is provided.

Drivers Education — A Home On The Range

Drivers education, a nine week course, gives students a first hand experience of learning the great responsibility of handling 2,000 pounds of solid steel, commonly known as the automobile.

The course, which is taught by Mrs. J. Handley and Mr. J. Taylor, is composed of three phases. The classroom, range, and the road. At the end of the nine week course, if a student has met the State of Michigan standards, a Drivers Education certificate is sent home.

Regals are popular on the range.

Mr. Mazzei "the faithful P.S.E. instructor."

PSE — The Direct Application Of Learning To Life

A steadfast portion of student curriculum for several years, P.S.E. continues to provide valuable information on regarding personal health and safety habits. This class, which is required for graduation, is usually taken along with Drivers Education in order to complete the semester. Although lasting only ten weeks, there is plenty of time for students to learn and make intelligent decisions about the different aspects of health which affect their lives.

Staff Combines Resources In Special Education Department

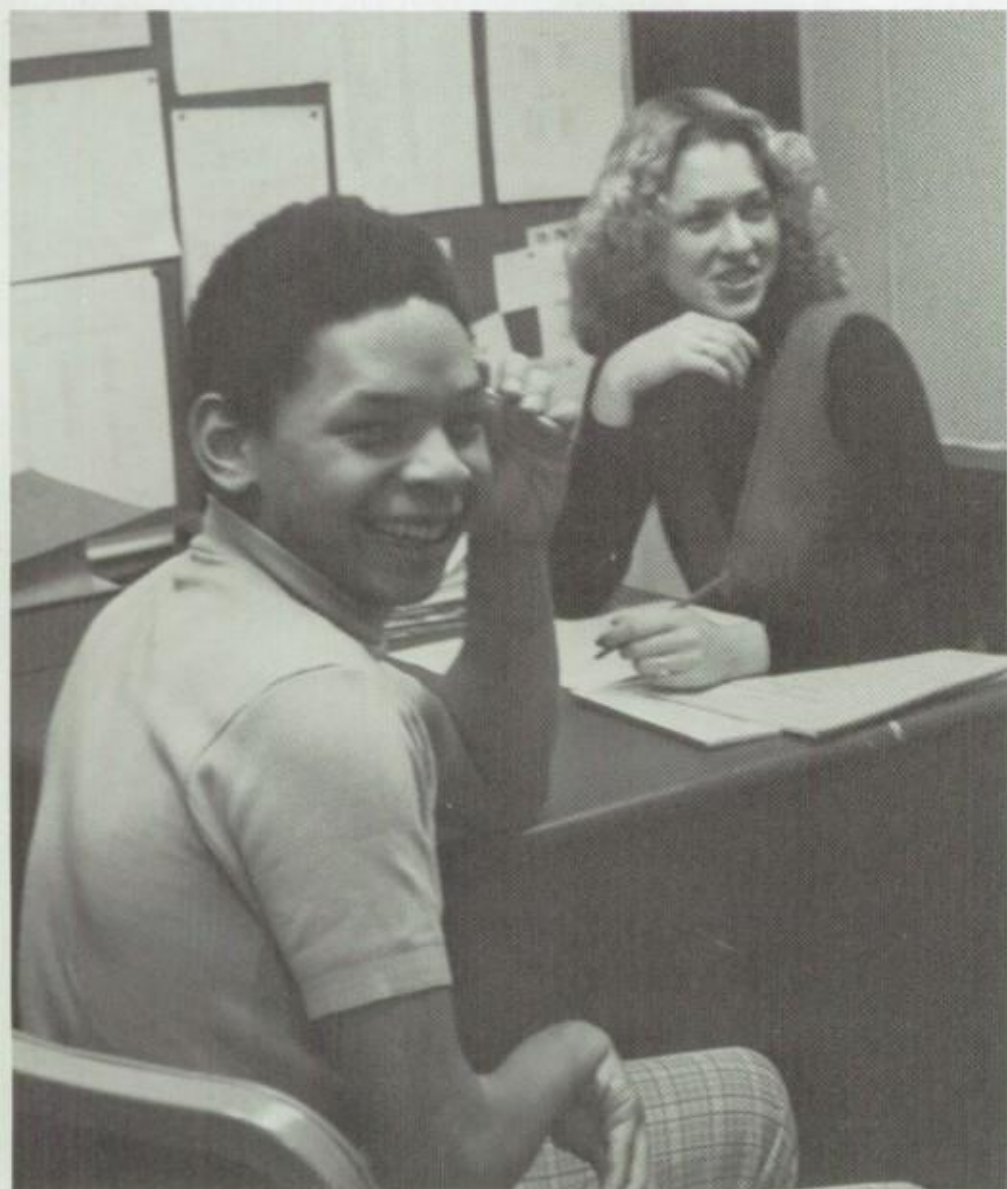

The chiefs of staff: Rich Warnick, Phyllis Dobson, and David Berant.

Meeting the needs of students is the key to the Special Education Department at Central. With support services from the diversified areas, it encourages the students to develop to their fullest potential. This also enables them to participate as much as possible in the regular classroom, Extracurricular activities, athletics, and work experiences.

In addition to the regular staff, support is provided by Catherine Kersey, occupational therapist; Richard Tunningley, speech therapist; Robert Guzak, social worker; and Patricia Paschal and David Berant, teacher consultants.

The Central library, under the direction of librarians Mrs. McCrady and Mrs. Corser and secretary Mrs. Gatz, has served its students well in the past year. Art Classes Molds Great Students.

Students taking art classes at Central benefit greatly as participants in the Fine Arts Specialty program. Classes in various areas of art are taught, including: drawing, painting, ceramics, and sculpture. Eventually, classes in jewelry making and weaving, will also be offered. Under the leadership of Mr. Koskinen the interest level in art remains at the same consistent height.

Skill Center Provides Training Facilities For

The Genesse County Skill Center provides an environment for high school students in the Flint area to apply their skills to practical vocation training. Teachers tend to work in a more personal manner than conventional school teachers and show students how to use modern equipment for job training. Their repertoire of courses include: Photography, Horticulture, Floriculture, Drafting, Television/Radio, Cosmetology, Nursing, Construction, Auto Mechanics, and Typing.

Advanced business students are placed in office training stations so that they may gain first hand office job experience. Many co-op students continue with their present position full time after graduation. Most students also receive job recommendations that are valuable for any future job applications. The students receive academic credit and are paid for their work. Co-ops are chosen according to their vocational skills and interests, attendance, and academic record. Among the many job stations are banks, real estate offices, school offices GM offices, attorney's and doctors' offices.

Counseling Purposes Are Manifold

The Counseling Department at Central offers a variety of services to students, staff, and parents. Students are assisted in course selection, college information, financial aid assistance, career and job exploration, job placement, and personal counseling. The variety of testing programs are administered and interpreted by the counselors to help students recognize both their strong and weak areas. Career Conferences and the Day on the Job program are another part of the effort to help students plan ahead. Counselors are ready to help in any way they can.

Drama Dept. Has Its Act Together

Mr. Whitfield I presume?

That's all Dr. Kirkland!

The Drama Department has undergone some significant changes in the past year. First, Ms. Jean Shoemaker was introduced as the new drama instructor and department chairman. She was the former student teacher for Mr. Olson who left last spring.

The fall play was a courtroom drama called "Night of January 16". The jury which returned the verdict was chosen from the audience. The Drama department entered a one-act competition and came in second place. They later went on to take first place at the regional competition. The one-act was a section from the play "The Effects of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon Marigolds".

Foreign Language Brings The World To Central

Flint Central High School is benefiting from an increased enrollment of students studying a foreign language. Our foreign language program is in an exciting period that has a bright future for the students at Flint Central High School. Students are learning about the increasing need for more bilingual people in the world of business, government and international relations. Mr. Parker teaching students from Central and Whittier in the classical Latin enjoys an increasing enrollment. The modern foreign languages of French, German and Spanish are taught by our excellent bilingual staff of Mrs. Epps, Mr. Bearden, Mrs. Calvo and Mr. Graves who present to the students a well balanced opportunity to gain insight into their particular foreign language in understanding, speaking, reading and writing.

Mrs. Epps: Sweet Sixteen?

What's going on here?

See no Spanish, Hear no Spanish, Speak no Spanish.

Who's giving the party!

Well, everyone needs a break sometimes.

The Central High School Bilingual Program provides students with the opportunity to develop their Bilingual Skills in Spanish as well as in English. Students are encouraged to communicate in two languages and are made aware of the importance of the Hispanic culture and history.

A bilingual office and resource room works actively with students and assists teachers with bilingual students.

Central High School is the only high school in the city with a bilingual program for foreign students in the schools or for students with a limited proficiency of the language.

Margarita Calvo is the resource person for the Bilingual program and Ana Maria Hernandez is the teacher aide.

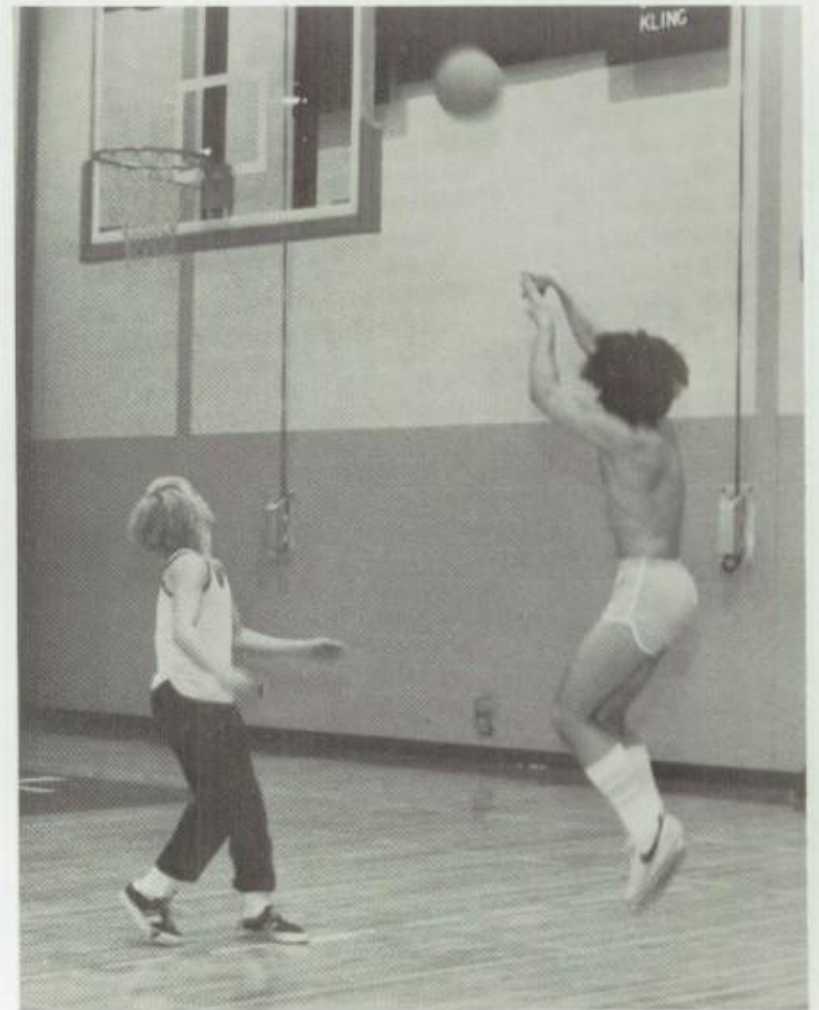

Alton Hicks works out for football.

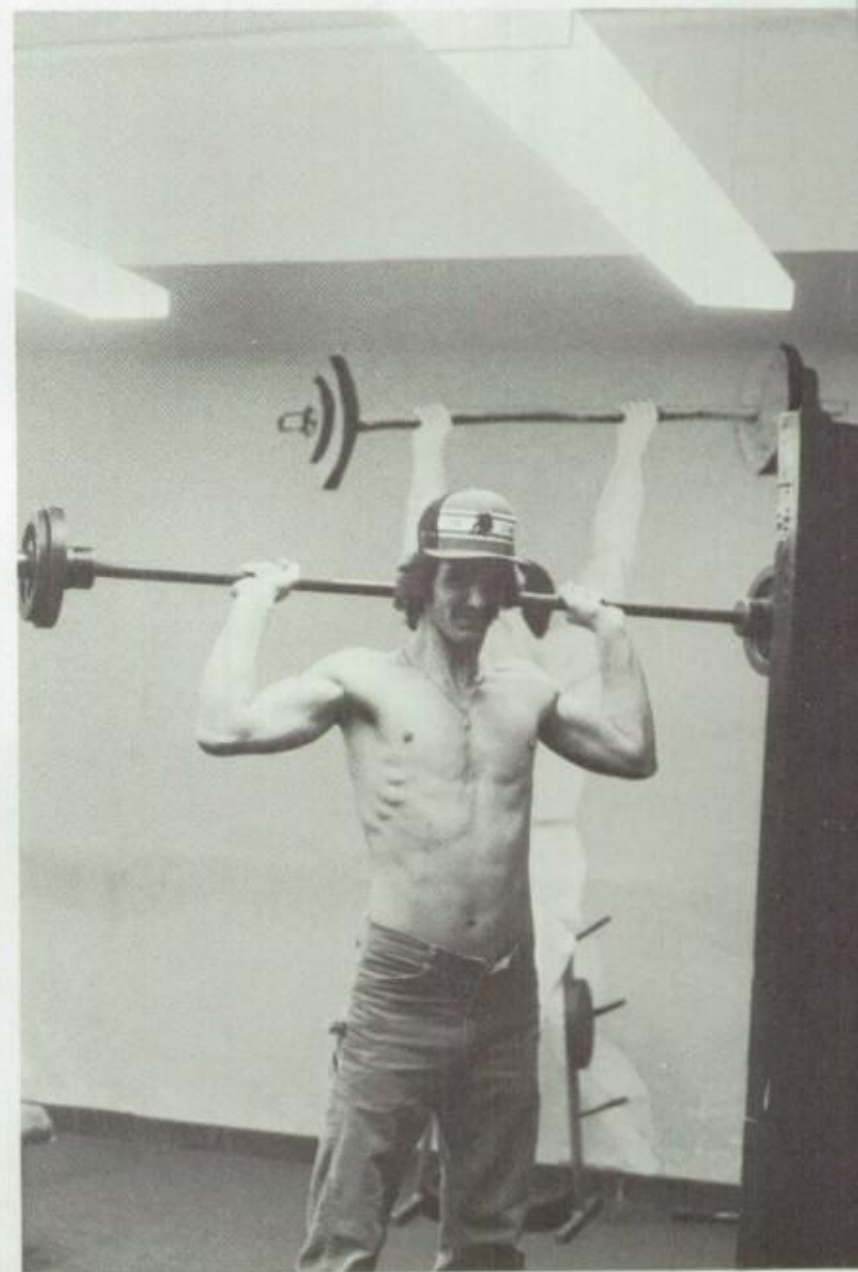

Physical Education At Central Is On The Ball

Strongly believing that school can and should improve the body as well as the mind, Central requires physical education for graduation. Operating from the spacious Nap Lavoie Fieldhouse, the physical education program incorporates several fields of sports, in an effort to promote teamwork and sportsmanship, in a co-educational atmosphere. Mrs. Hamilton, Mr. Ireland, and Mr. Kareck are the veteran supervisors and the newest addition to the staff is Mrs. June Cabell, formerly of Flint Open School.

Throughout The Central Area

Central is very fortunate to be represented by two vocal music groups, the A Capella and the Honors Choir. With direction provided by Helmut Petrich. Both choirs offer students a chance to contribute to the general euphony of the group. The A Capella choir is always actively involved in some project besides the traditional fall and spring concerts. Money-making ventures, the Solo Ensemble festival, and the all-city festival are annual group events. The Winter Holidays are especially busy with caroling at elementary schools and at Central, followed by a Winter Holiday Party, and then more neighborhood caroling. The Honors choir allows advanced students to continue their music careers on a more disciplined level. The music itself is of a more classical nature and is generally performed before social organizations within the area.

Marching Band

Central High's Music Department changed hands again this year, acquiring Mr. Ray McLean from Grand Blanc School. Mr. MacLean, in his eighth year of teaching, is the third band director in three years creating a rather unstable program, but he says the students are willing to work which makes it a satisfying program. The band was involved in several programs this past year, one being a Band-o-rama which was a joint concert of all the schools. They also held spring concerts with the junior highs and had their annual Christmas concert. To develop a persons self discipline, appreciate music and it's role in life and to work as an intregal unit of an over all group are their major goals of a member in a performing group.

Behind the grand doors of Central High School, brilliance is exhibited in all aspects of student life. However, it takes many people to keep up this tradition! Students take a breather from their class work.

Mr. MacLean,

To a very important person in my life
at this time due to my involvement in music.
I, personally, am very glad you came to Central. Though you had problems, I think you are an excellent band teacher. I have loved working under you. See be in band next year. See ya!

P.S. The trip to Canada was excellent. Thank You.

Love always,

Donna M. Warren

Mr MacLean,
It's been great having
you for a director.
I've learned alot this year and am eager to learn more next year. The trip to Canada was fun
and we did get lost.
I'll say hi to Howie
for ya. Thanks alot
See you next year

Th. MacLean,
You're been a great inspiration to me (Hail).
Actually you're a great land director. I think you're just what this land needs. I'll be with them - please, it helps when you have consistent training. (Believe me,
I wish I had had it).
If you need any help on anything next year, don't hesitate to call.
Yours,
